WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

PineBridge Japan Equity Fund is a Sub-Fund of the PineBridge Global Funds (the “Fund”). The Fund is constituted in the form of a unit trust. It is domiciled in Ireland and its home regulator is the Central Bank of Ireland.

OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Objectives

The Sub-Fund seeks to achieve long term capital growth by making at least two-thirds of its total investments in equity and equity-related investments in Japanese companies, i.e. companies incorporated in Japan or companies whose assets, products or operations are in Japan.

Strategy

At least two-thirds of the Sub-Fund’s total assets will be invested in equities and equity-related securities (excluding convertibles and bonds with warrants attached) of issuers within the Sub-Fund’s benchmark’s market cap range at the time of purchase, domiciled in or exercising the predominant part of their commercial activities in Japan. Within the remaining one-third, the Sub-Fund may invest in transferable securities not meeting the above requirements. The Sub-Fund may use financial derivative instruments (“FDIs”) including, but not limited to, futures, options, swaps, forwards and warrants for efficient portfolio management (including hedging) purposes only. The Sub-Fund will not use FDIs extensively for any purpose.

The Sub-Fund has no restrictions as to the proportion of assets allocated to companies of any particular market capitalisation and may invest across a range of economic sectors and industries.

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

Equity Risk

- The value of equity and equity-related securities will be affected by economic, political, market, and issuer-specific changes, regardless of company specific performance. Different industries, financial markets, and securities can react differently to these changes. Moreover, such fluctuations of a Sub-Fund’s value are often worsened in the short-term.

Market Volatility Risk

- All markets are subject to volatility based on prevailing economic conditions. Some of the markets or exchanges on which the Sub-Fund may invest may prove to be highly volatile from time to time.

Country Selection/Concentration Risk

- The Sub-Fund’s performance is often derived from its allocations to certain countries. These allocations may present greater opportunities and potential for capital appreciation, but may subject the Sub-Fund to concentration risk and higher risk of loss. The Sub-Fund concentrates its investments in equity and equity-related securities of companies whose assets, products or operations are in Japan. A concentrated investment strategy may be subject to a greater degree of volatility and risk (for example, currency volatility risks) than a portfolio which is diversified across different geographic regions.

Liquidity Risk

- The liquidity of securities that are not listed or rated may be low. As such, the purchase and sale of these holdings may be time consuming and may be conducted at unfavorable prices.

Financial Derivative Instruments Risk

- The leverage effect embedded in derivatives may result in substantial losses including and up to the total value of the assets of the Sub-Fund and the prices of derivatives can be highly volatile. The use of FDIs may expose the Sub-Fund to various types of risk, including but not limited to, counterparty, liquidity, correlation, credit, volatility, valuation and settlement risks which can have an adverse effect on the net asset value of the Sub-Fund.

Distributions from Capital Risk

- Dividends, if any, may be paid out of the capital of the Sub-Fund. Where the Manager determines in its discretion to pay distributions in respect of the Sub-Fund, investors should note that such distributions amount to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor’s original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment.
- Such distributions may result in an immediate decrease in the net asset value of the Sub-Fund.
- Where a class is hedged, the distribution amount and net asset value may be adversely affected by currency fluctuations between the reference currency of the hedged class and the base currency of the Sub-Fund, resulting in an increase in the amount of distribution that is paid out of capital and hence a greater erosion of capital than other non-hedged classes.

Investment Loss Risk

- The instruments invested by the Sub-Fund may fall in value and therefore your investment in the Sub-Fund may suffer losses.
- The value of the Sub-Fund may be adversely affected by developments in political, economical and social conditions and policies of the markets in which it invests which may result in losses to your investment.

HOW HAS THE SUB-FUND PERFORMED?

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-To-NAV, with dividend reinvested.
- These figures show by how much the unit class increased or decreased in value during the calendar year being shown. Performance data has been calculated in USD, including ongoing charges and excluding subscription fee and redemption fee you might have to pay.
- Class A is an active unit class available for Hong Kong retail investors. It has been chosen to be the representative unit class for disclosure of past performance information in this statement. Material Change to the Sub-Fund: From inception to 30 June 2008, the benchmark of the Sub-Fund was the MSCI Japan Small Cap Daily Total Return Net Index. From 1 July 2008 to 24 September 2018, the benchmark of the Sub-Fund was changed to MSCI Japan SMID Cap Daily Total Return Net Index. Such change was made because the Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund reasonably considers that such benchmark was more reflective of the Sub-Fund's investment strategy than the previous benchmark. From 25 September 2018, the benchmark of the Sub-Fund has been changed to TOPIX Total Return Net Index (also known as the Tokyo Stock Price Index). Such change was made because the Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund reasonably considers that such benchmark closer aligns with the current investment policy of the Sub-Fund than the previous benchmark. On 25 September 2018, there were material changes made to the investment objective and policy of the Sub-Fund hence the performance for the years from 2007 to 2017 was achieved under circumstance that no longer apply.
- The benchmark of the Sub-Fund is TOPIX Total Return Net Index.
- Sub-Fund / Class A launch date: 19 December 2005
