WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

PineBridge Latin America Equity Fund is a sub-fund of the PineBridge Global Funds (the “Fund”). The Fund is constituted in the form of a unit trust. It is domiciled in Ireland and its home regulator is the Central Bank of Ireland.

OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT STRATEGY
Objectives

The Sub-Fund seeks to achieve a superior rate of return by making equity and equity-related investments in companies operating in the economies of Latin America.

Strategy

The Sub-Fund will invest at least two-thirds of its total assets in transferable securities of issuers domiciled in or exercising the predominant part of their commercial activities in Brazil, Mexico, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Venezuela and Colombia. The remaining one-third assets of the Sub-Fund may invest in transferable securities not meeting the above requirements, including investments in other Latin American countries.

<sup>2</sup> As the Class is not yet launched, the ongoing charges figure is an annualized figure based on the estimated expenses for the 6 months ended 30 June 2019 and expressed as a percentage over the estimated average net asset value of the class of unit for the corresponding period. This figure may vary from year to year.

The Sub-Fund may use financial derivative instruments (“FDIs”) including, but not limited to futures, options, swaps, forwards, and warrants for efficient portfolio management (including hedging) and for investment purposes. The Sub-Fund will not use FDIs extensively for any purpose.

Global exposure (as prescribed in the Central Bank UCITS Regulations) and leverage as a result of its investment in FDIs shall not exceed 35% of the net asset value of the Sub-Fund on a permanent basis.

The Sub-Fund has no restrictions as to the proportion of assets allocated to companies of any particular market capitalisation and may invest across a range of economic sectors and industries.

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

Equity Risk

- The value of equity and equity-related securities will be affected by economic, political, market, and issuer-specific changes, regardless of company specific performance. Different industries, financial markets, and securities can react differently to these changes. Moreover, such fluctuations of a Sub-Fund’s value are often worsened in the short-term.

Emerging Markets Risk

- Investment in securities of companies or in certain securities markets considered as “emerging” or “developing” countries or markets involves a relatively higher degree of risk and may be considered speculative due to the absence of, amongst other things, developed legal structures governing private or foreign investments and private property, internationally comparable accounting, auditing and reporting standard and level of information transparency, significant adverse economic developments including substantial depreciation in currency exchange rates or unstable currency fluctuations.
- The size and volume of trading of securities markets of “emerging” or “developing” market issuers are currently small and low or non-existent, which might result in price volatility and lack of liquidity.
- Investments in “emerging” or “developing” markets entail increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets which include the possibility of political or social instability, adverse changes in investment or exchange control regulations, expropriation and withholding of dividends at source, liquidity risks, currency risks, taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risks and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.

Country Selection Risk

- The Sub-Fund’s performance is often derived from its allocations to certain countries. These allocations may present greater opportunities and potential for capital appreciation, but may subject the Sub-Fund to concentration risk and higher risk of loss as compared to a portfolio which is diversified across different geographic regions.

Market Volatility Risk

- All markets are subject to volatility based on prevailing economic conditions. Some of the markets or exchanges on which the Sub-Fund may invest may prove to be highly volatile from time to time.

Currency Risk

- The Sub-Fund may invest in holdings denominated in other currencies different from its base currency (i.e. USD) and therefore may be affected favourably or unfavourably by exchange control regulations or currency exchange rates between USD and such other currencies.

Financial Derivative Instruments Risk

- The leverage effect embedded in derivatives may result in substantial losses including and up to the total value of the assets of the Sub-Fund and the prices of derivatives can be highly volatile. The use of FDIs may expose the Sub-Fund to various types of risk, including but not limited to, counterparty, liquidity, correlation, credit, volatility, valuation and settlement risks which can have an adverse effect on the net asset value of the Sub-Fund.

Contract for Difference Risk

- By entering into a contract for difference (“CFD”), a party undertakes to pay (or receive) in cash the difference between the valuation of the underlying asset at the time of entering into the contract and the valuation of the underlying asset at a specified moment in the future. As CFDs are traded over the counter, it is subject to FDI risk, notably counterparty risk, liquidity risk, market volatility risk because of the high leverage as well as margin risk similar to futures.

Distributions from Capital Risk

- Dividends, if any, may be paid out of the capital of the Sub-Fund. Where the Manager determines in its discretion to pay distributions in respect of the Sub-Fund, investors should note that such distributions amount to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor’s original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment.

- Such distributions may result in an immediate decrease in the net asset value of the Sub-Fund.

Investment Loss Risk

- The instruments invested by the Sub-Fund may fall in value and therefore your investment in the Sub-Fund may suffer losses.
- The value of the Sub-Fund may be adversely affected by developments in political, economical and social conditions and policies of the markets in which it invests which may result in losses to your investment.

HOW HAS THE SUB-FUND PERFORMED?

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-To-NAV, with dividend reinvested.
- These figures show by how much the unit class increased or decreased in value during the calendar year being shown. Performance data has been calculated in USD, including ongoing charges and excluding subscription fee and redemption fee you might have to pay.
- Class A is an active unit class available for Hong Kong retail investors. It has been chosen to be the representative unit class for disclosure of past performance information in this statement.
- Material Change to the Sub-Fund: From inception to 31 December 2007, the benchmark of the Sub-Fund was MSCI Emerging Markets Latin America Daily Total Return Net Index. From 1 January 2008 to 20 March 2016, the benchmark of the Sub-Fund was changed to MSCI Emerging Markets Latin America 10/40 Equity Daily Total Return Net Index. On 21 March 2016, the benchmark of the Sub-Fund was changed to MSCI Emerging Markets Latin America Daily Total Return Net Index. Such change was made because the Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund reasonably considers that such benchmark is more reflective of the Sub-Fund's investment strategy and universe than the previous benchmark.
- The benchmark of the Sub-Fund is MSCI Emerging Markets Latin America Daily Total Return Net Index.
- Sub-Fund launch date: 1 January 1993
- Class A launch date: 1 August 2006
