

CUAM Hong Kong Dollar Bond Fund – Class A

An eligible collective investment scheme under the “Capital Investment Entrant Scheme”

Mar 2021 (as of 31 Mar 2021)

Important Notes

- The Fund mainly invests in debt securities and may invest in securities which are below investment grade or which are unrated. Investment in the Fund is subject to risks that apply to debt securities, including but not limited to, interest rates risk, counterparty risk, liquidity risk and downgrading risk.
- The Fund may invest in convertible bonds, which are subject to the credit, interest rate and market risks with both debt securities and equity securities and any risk specific to convertible bonds.
- The Manager may at its discretion pay dividend out of the capital of the Fund or pay dividend out of gross income while charging/paying all or part of the Fund's fees and expenses to/out of the capital of the Fund, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the Fund, and therefore, the Fund may effectively pay dividend out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively pay dividend out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distributions will result in an immediate reduction in the net asset value per unit of the Fund.
- Investor should not make investment decisions solely based on this document.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide investors with a stable and consistent investment return over medium to long term by investing primarily in Hong Kong Dollar denominated debt securities instruments. The Fund will invest more than 70% of its assets in Hong Kong Dollar denominated debt securities and certificates of deposits, and not more than 30% of its assets in other currency denominated debt securities.

Portfolio Manager's Commentary

In March, the Fund (Class A HKD) posted a return of -0.51%. HKD Bond market performed weak. In terms of market outlook, we still maintain a cautiously positive view. We focus on interest risk control and maintain good liquidity. Meanwhile, we prudentially select in high yield bonds seeking for return enhancement and improve portfolio risk diversification.
