Introduction

Baring Fund Managers Limited (the “Manager”) has delegated its day-to-day investment management responsibilities in relation to Barings Europe Select Trust (the “Trust”) to Baring Asset Management Limited (the “Investment Manager”), which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”).

As an investor in the Trust, your money is pooled with that of other investors and invested by the Manager in a widely diversified portfolio of shares of Continental European companies. Although income (“Inc”) units are issued, the primary objective of the Trust is to provide growth in the value of capital. Investors can choose to reinvest any revenue generated back into the Trust, thus participating fully in the growth prospects of European companies. As with all Trusts managed by the Manager, the risk assumed in this portfolio is carefully monitored.

The report of the Manager reviews the performance of the Trust against the returns of the stock markets in which it is investing and analyses the investment environment that influenced the performance of the Trust during the period under review. The Manager then gives an outlook for the markets and details how the Trust will be invested in order to take full advantage of the foreseen opportunities. Finally, the report of the Manager gives details of any revenue generated by the Trust.

Investment objective and policy

The investment objective of the Barings Europe Select Trust (the “Trust”) is to achieve long-term capital growth by investing in Europe.

The Trust will seek to achieve its investment objective by investing at least 75% of its total assets directly and indirectly in equities and equity-related securities of smaller companies incorporated in, or exercising the predominant part of their economic activity in Europe or quoted or traded on the stock exchanges in Europe.

Smaller European companies can be defined as those companies which are constituents of the bottom 30% of total market capitalisation of Europe’s listed companies.

For the remainder of its total assets, the Trust may invest outside of Europe, as well as in larger companies, and in fixed income and cash.

While the Trust will aim to diversify its investments, allocation to certain countries, industries or sectors may be more than 30% of its total assets depending on the Investment Manager’s assessment at different times.

In order to implement the investment policy, the Trust may gain exposure through American depositary receipts, global depositary receipts and other equity related securities including participation notes, structured notes, equity-linked notes and debt securities convertible into equities. The Trust may also invest in collective investment schemes and other transferable securities. It may also use derivatives including futures, options, swaps, warrants and forward contracts for efficient portfolio management (including hedging).

How the Trust is managed

At Barings, our equity investment teams share the philosophy of quality “Growth at a Reasonable Price” or GARP. We believe that earnings growth is the principal driver of equity market performance over the medium to long term, and favour high-quality companies for their ability to outperform the market on a risk-adjusted basis. In particular, we believe that structured fundamental research and a disciplined investment process combining quality, growth and upside disciplines can allow us to identify attractively priced, long-term growth companies which will outperform the market. Our approach emphasises quality criteria when looking at companies and a three- to five-year time horizon when forecasting company earnings. In determining upside, we use consistent and transparent methods to place emphasis on discounted earnings models.

Risk profile

Please see detailed below the key risks applicable to the Trust:

- Changes in exchange rates between the currency of the Trust and the currencies in which the assets of the Trust are valued can have the effect of increasing or decreasing the value of the Trust and any income generated.
- The Trust can hold smaller company shares, which can be more difficult to buy and sell as they may trade infrequently and in small volumes, so their share prices may fluctuate more than those of larger companies.
- Regional Funds have a narrower focus than those which invest broadly across markets and are therefore considered to be more risky.

- Derivative instruments can make a profit or a loss and there is no guarantee that a financial derivative contract will achieve its intended outcome. The use of derivatives can increase the amount by which the Trust's value rises and falls and could expose the Trust to losses that are significantly greater than the cost of the derivative, as a relatively small movement may have a larger impact on derivatives than the underlying assets.
- Emerging market countries may have less developed regulation and face more political, economic or structural challenges than developed countries. This means your money is at greater risk.
- Losses may occur if an organisation through which we buy an asset (such as a bank) fails to meet its obligations.

Please refer to the Prospectus for the full risk profile.

Constitution

The Barings Europe Select Trust (the "Trust") is constituted by a Trust Deed between Baring Fund Managers Limited (the "Manager") and NatWest Trustee and Depository Services Limited (the "Trustee").

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (the "Independent Auditor") expresses its opinion on the English version of the annual report and financial statements, and accepts no responsibility for any translations of those financial statements.

Market timing

Repeatedly purchasing and selling units in the Trust in response to short-term market fluctuations – known as 'market timing' – can disrupt the Manager's investment strategy and increase the Trust's expenses to the prejudice of all unitholders.

The Trust is not intended for market timing or excessive trading. To deter these activities, the Manager may refuse to accept an application for units from persons that it reasonably believes are engaged in market timing or are otherwise excessive or potentially disruptive to the Trust.

The Manager also reserves the right to redeem units which it reasonably believes have been purchased by unitholders engaged in market timing.

Publication of prices

The prices of units are published on the Barings website at www.barings.com and on the "Daily Fund Prices" page of the Investment Association website at www.theinvestmentassociation.org. You can also obtain prices by telephone by calling +44 (0) 333 300 0372.

Dealing basis

The Manager's basis for dealing in purchases and sales of the Trust's units is "forward". This means that the price used for any deal will be calculated at the next valuation point following receipt of the investor's instruction.

Fees and expenses

The Manager's periodic charge is calculated on each business day, based on the value of the property of the Trust on the immediately preceding business day, and is paid to the Manager monthly, in arrears, on the first business day of the calendar month immediately following. Special risks resulting from additional German tax publication requirements in Germany

A foreign investment company (such as Baring Fund Managers Limited (the “Manager”)) must provide documentation to the German fiscal authorities upon request, e.g. in order to verify the accuracy of the additional German published tax information. German investors will use this for their tax returns. The basis upon which such figures are calculated is open to interpretation and it cannot be guaranteed that the German fiscal authorities will accept the Manager’s calculation methodology in every material respect. In addition, you should be aware that if it transpires that these publications are incorrect, any subsequent correction will, as a general rule, not have retrospective effect and will, as a general rule, only take effect during the current financial year. Consequently, the correction may positively or negatively affect the investors who receive a distribution or an attribution of deemed income distributions in the current financial year.

Information for investors in Switzerland

The Manager has appointed BNP Paribas Securities Services, Paris, succursale de Zurich, Selnaustrasse 16, 8002 Zurich, Switzerland, as representative and paying agent for Switzerland. Important information concerning the performance tables on page 10

The value of an investment can fall as well as rise as a result of market fluctuations, and investors may not get back the amount originally invested. Past performance is no indication of current or future performance. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of units, nor the effect of the Manager’s preliminary charge.

In conformity with a guideline of the Swiss Funds Association (“SFA”) dated 16 May 2008, the Manager is providing the below additional information regarding performance.

Total expense ratio (“TER”)

Following a guideline of the SFA dated 16 May 2008, the Manager is required to publish a total expense ratio (“TER”) for the Trust for the first part of the current accounting period and the second part of the previous accounting year. The TER has been established by the Manager and draws upon the data contained in the “Statement of total return” (Manager’s management fee, registration fees, trustee fees, safe custody charges, audit fees, Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) and other regulatory fees and taxation fees as well as any further fees and costs listed in the “Statement of total return” account which do not form part of the aforementioned categories). It is calculated with reference to these numbers and in conformity with the above guideline.

* The Synthetic Risk and Reward Indicator ("SRRRI") is not a measure of the risk of capital loss, but a measure of the Trust's price movement over time; the higher the number, the greater the price movement both up and down. It is based on historical data and is not a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Trust. The risk category shown is in line with the Key Investor Information Document ("KIID") at period-end, is not guaranteed and may change over time. The risk categories are measured from 1 to 7 (1 measuring typically lower risk/rewards and 7 measuring typically higher risk/rewards). The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment. The Trust is classified in the category indicated due to past movements in the Trust's price. There is no capital guarantee. The value of investments and the income from them may go down as well as up and investors may not get back the amount they invest. The SRRRI figures shown have changed from 6 to 5 during the year.

Performance

The Barings Europe Select Trust ("The Trust") registered an absolute gross return of -6.96% on Class A GBP Inc shares for the six months to 30 November 2018, outperforming the return of its key performance comparator index of -8.76%. This relative out-performance was primarily due to stock selection.

Edenred, the French corporate services and payments specialist company, was the most significant contributor to relative returns, reflecting continuing strong profits growth and optimism around potential consolidation in this sector. Tryg, the Danish insurance group and a large position in the portfolio, also contributed to performance following continued strong results; Tryg enjoys a leading position in Denmark's insurance sector and is continually working to improve client retention and satisfaction. Valmet, a Finnish industrial group with a global-leading position as a supplier of equipment for the pulp and paper manufacturing industries, also performed well, as demand has generally been strong and due to its own profit improvement plans.

Sopra Steria, a French IT services and software specialist, detracted from performance due to disappointing growth and cost over-runs across a number of its activities. BE Semiconductor Industries, a Dutch provider of production equipment to the semiconductor manufacturing industry, also detracted from performance due to weak demand from a key client and profit-taking following earlier very strong share price performance.

Market outlook

European equity markets have proved increasingly volatile and prone to profit-taking throughout the last six months, impacted by both domestic geopolitical and economic concerns as well as growing fears that US–China trade wars might impact global trade and by recent weakness in US Treasury bonds, resulting in bond yields rising. As a result, investor sentiment towards equity markets has deteriorated, prompting profit-taking in asset classes, stocks and sectors – such as European smaller companies – that had hitherto been performing strongly. Across the board, investors in European equities have also become more concerned about the outlook for corporate profit margins as a result of rising raw material prices and labour cost inflation.

While market movements have been severe and current volatile market conditions could persist, we continue to take a positive view on the individual stock selection opportunities among European smaller companies. Certainly, political and macro-level developments such as European political tensions and ongoing trade disputes retain the capacity to upset equity markets; however, European smaller companies are reasonably valued relative to larger companies and relative to other asset classes, particularly if corporate earnings revision trends do not deteriorate. In this context, while trade disputes and bond yields remain in focus, it is encouraging that recent European economic data and business confidence surveys continue to indicate that Europe is experiencing further, if below trend, economic growth.
