What is this product?

The Asia-Pacific Property Equities Fund is a sub-fund of the Janus Henderson Horizon Fund, constituted in the form of a mutual fund and domiciled in Luxembourg. Its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier.

The Sub-Fund is not authorized by the SFC under the Code on Real Estate Investment Trusts.

Investment objective and investment strategy

Investment objective

The investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to seek long-term capital appreciation through investment in the quoted equities of companies or Real Estate Investment Trusts (or their equivalents) in the Asia-Pacific region and listed or traded on a regulated market.

Investment strategy

The Sub-Fund will invest at least 75% of its NAV in the quoted equities of companies or Real Estate Investment Trusts (or their equivalents) having their registered offices in the Asia-Pacific Region and listed or traded on a regulated market, which derive the predominant part of their revenue from the ownership, management and/or development of real estate in the Asia-Pacific Region.

For the remaining assets, the Investment Manager (“IM”) has the flexibility to invest outside the Sub-Fund’s principal geographies or asset classes.

No more than 10% of the Sub-Fund’s NAV may be invested in units of UCITS or other UCIs.

The Sub-Fund has the ability to use financial derivative instruments (“FDIs”) such as options, forward foreign exchange, interest rate swap, contracts for difference, and futures on index, interest rate and bond, for hedging and/or efficient portfolio management (“EPM”) purposes. The Sub-Fund will not use FDIs extensively for hedging and/or EPM purposes and neither will it use FDIs extensively or primarily to achieve the Sub-Fund’s investment objective or for investment purposes.

The IM may consider hedging currency and interest rates exposure, but will not generally enter into contracts involving a speculative position in any currency or interest rate.

The Sub-Fund may engage in securities lending transactions. Lending transactions may not be carried out on more than 50% of the NAV of the Sub-Fund.

Currently, the Sub-Fund does not engage in repurchase and/or reverse repurchase agreement transactions.

While the Sub-Fund will invest in accordance with the above investment objective and strategy, the Sub-Fund is not subject to any limitation on the portion of its NAV that may be invested in any one country.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Prospectus and Hong Kong Covering Document for details including the risk factors.

Equity and equity-related securities risk

- The value of equity and equity-related securities may be affected by various economic, political, market and issuer-specific factors and changes in investment sentiment. As a result, the value of such securities may be volatile and decline in value over short or even extended periods of time as well as rise. A fall in the value of equity and equity related securities may adversely affect the NAV of the Sub-Fund.

Risks relating to securities lending

- Investors should note that if the borrower of securities lent by the Sub-Fund becomes insolvent or refuses to honour its obligations to return the relevant securities in a timely manner, the Sub-Fund would experience delays in recovering its securities and may possibly incur a capital loss which may adversely impact investors. The collateral received may realise at a value less than the value of the securities lent out, whether due to inaccurate pricing, adverse market movements, a deterioration in the credit rating of the issuers of the collateral, or the illiquidity of the market in which the collateral is traded. Further, delays in the return of securities on loan may restrict the ability of the Sub-Fund to meet delivery obligations under security sales or payment obligations arising from realisation requests.

Currency risk

- Assets of a Sub-Fund may be denominated in a currency other than the base currency (i.e. US Dollar) of the Sub-Fund. Also, a Share Class may be designated in a currency other than the base currency of the Sub-Fund. Changes in exchange rate control and changes in the exchange rate between the base currency and these currencies may affect the value of the Sub-Fund's assets as expressed in the base currency. Adverse fluctuations in currency exchange rates can result in a decrease in return and in a loss of capital which may have an adverse impact on the Sub-Fund.

Derivatives risk

- The use of FDIs can involve a higher level of risk, in adverse situations, the Sub-Fund's use of FDIs may become ineffective in hedging and/or EPM and the Sub-Fund may suffer significant losses. The leverage element/component of an FDI can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the FDI by the Sub-Fund. The use of FDIs also exposes the Sub-Fund to associated risks including counterparty risk, leverage risk, liquidity risk, volatility risk and valuation risk.

Performance fee risk

- Performance fees may encourage the IM to make riskier investment decisions than in the absence of performance-based incentive systems. The increase in NAV which is used as a basis for the calculation of performance fees, may comprise of both realised gains and unrealised gains as at the end of the calculation period, and as a result, performance fees may be paid on unrealised gains which may subsequently never be realised by the Sub-Fund.
- The Sub-Fund does not apply any equalisation in the calculation of performance fee, therefore there may be circumstances where an investor may either be advantaged or disadvantaged as a result of the performance fee calculation methodology. Specifically, in the event of the Sub-Fund's outperformance, an investor may be subject to a performance fee regardless of whether a loss in investment capital has been suffered by the investor.

Market risk

- The value of the investments in the Sub-Fund may go up or down due to changing economic, political, regulatory, social development or market conditions that impact the share price of the companies that the Sub-Fund invests in. A fall in the value of the Sub-Fund's investment may cause a fall in the NAV of the Sub-Fund. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.

Concentration risk

- The Sub-Fund's instruments are concentrated in Asia-Pacific region and property sector. The Sub-Fund will be more susceptible to and may be adversely affected by any single economic market, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory occurrence affecting the Asia-Pacific market. Although the Sub-Fund has a regional investment universe, it may at times be concentrated in certain countries. The value of the Sub-Fund will be more volatile than a sub-fund that has a more diverse portfolio of investments.

Liquidity risk

- Any security could become hard to value or to sell at a desired time and price, increasing the risk of investment losses.

Property securities related risk

- There are special risks associated with investment in securities of companies engaged in property markets. These include the cyclical nature of property values, increases in property taxes, changes in zoning laws, regulatory limits on rents, environmental risks, depreciation in the value of buildings over time, and increases in interest rates.

Hedging risk

- Any attempts to reduce certain risks may not work as intended. Any measures that the Sub-Fund takes that are designed to offset specific risks may work imperfectly, may not be feasible at times, or may fail completely. To the extent that no hedge exists, the Sub-Fund or share class will be exposed to all risks that the hedge would have protected against.

Risk in payment of distributions

- Payment of distributions out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. This may result in capital erosion and a reduction in the potential for long-term capital growth. Any distributions involving payment of distributions out of a Share Class's capital or payment of distributions effectively out of a Share Class's capital (as the case may be) may result in an immediate reduction of the NAV per share of the Share Class.

How has the Sub-Fund performed?

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-To-NAV, with distributions reinvested.
- These figures show by how much the share class increased or decreased in value during the calendar year being shown. Performance data has been calculated in US$ including ongoing charges and excluding subscription fee and redemption fee you might have to pay.
- The benchmark of the Sub-Fund is FTSE EPRA Nareit Pure Asia total return net dividend Index (Capital constrained). For the avoidance of doubt, the above mentioned benchmark is solely used for performance fee calculation purposes, and should therefore not be considered as indicative of a specific investment style.
- Sub-Fund launch date: 2005.
- Share Class A2 US$ launch date: 2005.
- The Investment Manager views Class A2 US$, being the retail share class denominated in the base currency of the Sub-Fund, as the most appropriate representative share class.

Is there any guarantee?

This Sub-Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of money you invest.
